

Introduction for Brenda

Brenda Seefeldt Amoda (A-Mo-Day-A) is an ordained minister with 40 years in youth ministry. Yes, she believes in teenagers who do grow up to be pretty awesome adults. Her goal is to help faithseekers like you have the intense faith experiences that teens have mixed with the wisdom that you have.

She is married to John and together they have raised 4 boys they did not birth but are their own. This is the best story of her life. They have also given her 6 grandchildren who know of Jesus from the day they were born.

Following God down these paths has given Brenda many stories. She shares them at Bravester.com and she is ready to share with you tonight. Please welcome Brenda Amoda.

Introduction for Brenda and John

Brenda Amoda (A-Moe-Day-A) is an ordained minister doing 40 years in youth ministry. John Amoda is a life-long musician, worship leader, and song writer whose songs match Brenda's stories because he has lived them with her.

Fun fact: Together they also own a paintball media company because John is a retired paintball player.
